

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN LINGUISTICS

Department of Linguistics and Philosophy (<https://catalog.mit.edu/schools/humanities-arts-social-sciences/linguistics-philosophy/#linguistics-ms>)

Program Requirements

24.900	Introduction to Linguistics ¹	12
At least one of the following subjects:		12-36
24.931	Language and Its Structure I: Phonology ¹
24.932	Language and Its Structure II: Syntax ¹
24.933	Language and Its Structure III: Semantics and Pragmatics ¹
24.921	Independent Study: Linguistics (Focused on the student's language) ²	24
24.THG	Graduate Thesis ³	72
Total Units		120-144

¹ If the student has already completed equivalent coursework in this area, a more advanced class in the same area is taken instead.

² Students register for a minimum of 24 units of 24.921 Independent Study: Linguistics, focused on their own language. Students can register for additional terms of 24.921.

³ Students register for 36 units of Thesis Research each term during the second year of the program.